Christopher Sandford is brutally honest about a lot of really obnoxious incidents and events, and also about Cobain's public attitude, which was both unbelievably arrogant and self-pitying. Sandford's problem is not so much that he's biased against Kurt Cobain, but that he never makes up his mind.

Kurt Cobain by Christopher Sandford - Goodreads

It's a pleasure to report, then, that veteran music journalist Christopher Sandford has produced a solidly researched and coherently argued portrait of Nirvana's front man. The author doesn't flinch from the ugly aspects of Kurt Cobain's personality and lifestyle, nor is he wholly admiring of the music.
